

Net Neutrality is essential to the continued free expression of the American people. I request that the FCC not drop the open internet protocols and net neutrality.